CLASPING A WILDCAT

Western Mountaineer Has a Narrow Escape From Animal, Which Tried to Reach His Throat.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., Sept. 18. John Siegel, a middle aged, hardy mountaineer, ran nine milesetoday with a full grown feroclous wildcat hugged close to his chest and lived to tell the tale. Siegel was hunting grouse on the eastern slope of Pike's Peak today when his dog flushed game. Siegel did not know what kind it was and he ap-proached cautiously. He soon found out, for a wildcat leaped in an effort to reach Siegel's throat. Owing to a heavy coat the claws did not do much heavy coat the claws did not do much harm.

Slegel dropped his rifle in fright, but he clasped the cat with strong arms. One arm was close below the animal's head rendering the sharp teeth ineffective. The cat's legs were crushed under its body. Thus the hunter traversed nime miles along a narrow mountain trail before assistance was obtained. Then two hunters, Ed Smith and Thomas Lowell, shot the animal in the head while it was clasped in Slegel's desperate embrace.

"I owe my life to the cat's flattened position on my chest," he said. "His struggles were fearful. I never looked into such eyes before. It seemed I would never find help."

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 18.—Cole Younger, promoter of the electric trolley line which is to pass through the societies from different parts of New old home counties of the James boys and Youngers, thence to Jefferson City, with a probability of later being extended to St. Louis, says that the money to finance his project is being furnished by the Deity in vain, and to use their in-Eastern capitalists.

It is understood, however, that Senator Elkins, of West Virginia, is furnishing the greater part of the needed capital. Why Senator Elkins should befriend to the time of the civil war, when Elkins was a resident of Missouri. When the war began Elkins enlisted in the Federal army.

At that time the Younger boys and Frank and Jesse James were members of the Quantrell band. During a raid Elkins fell into the hands of the guerrilla chieftain, and the order was given to "take him to the rear," which, in Quantrell parlance meant death.

Cole Younger and Frank James overtook the squad conveying Elkins to his death, and upon a promise to be responsible for carrying out Quantrell's orders secured possession of the prisoner.

About this time the guerrilla band engaged a troop of Federal soldiers, and in the excitement Younger and James allowed Elkins, who was an old friend, to escape.

Have the Home Beek Jure

Whatever you drink outside, let your home beer be Schlitz. That is pure beer. No bacilli in it --- nothing to make vou bilious.

Beer is a saccharine product, and germs multiply rapidly in it. The slightest taint of impurity quickly ruins its healthfulness.

We go to the utmost extremes to prevent that. Cleanliness is a science where Schlitz beer is brewed.

We even cool the beer in plate glass rooms, in nothing but filtered air.

Then we filter the beer. Then we sterilize every bottle.

And Schlitz beer is aged. The beer that makes you bilious is green beer.

When you order beer for your home, get the healthfulness without the harm. Get a pure beer - get an old beer - get Schlitz.
